

Discover Door County

Our local knowledge of the Door County Peninsula and Washington Island is sure to enhance your romantic escape. Choose the serenity of strolling, biking, hiking and kayaking from the Inn to fulfill your getaway cravings. Or immerse yourself in all Door County has to offer with its pristine scenery, miles of shoreline, lighthouses, music festivals, theater venues, art galleries, unique gift shops, wineries and a wealth of dining experiences.

A memorable stay beckons any time of year!

Breakfast

We bake muffins each morning from the freshest ingredients and serve them along with seasonal fruit, our homemade granola, yogurt, cheeses, hard boiled eggs, juices, smoothies, coffee, tea, milk and hot cocoa. Breakfast is buffet style from 8-10 a.m. in the lobby of each building. Load up a tray and return to the privacy of your room or share the camaraderie of dining on the common balcony.

Awaken & Relax

Nestled on four hundred feet of untamed Lake Michigan shore in the charming village of Baileys Harbor, Wisconsin; the Blacksmith Inn On the Shore graciously blends Door County bed and breakfast charm with contemporary amenities. Unwind and relax in one of fifteen deliciously private guest rooms, each with an in-room whirlpool, fireplace, private balcony and extraordinary harbor view.

Guests enjoy a bountiful continental breakfast, our bottomless jar of homemade cherry oatmeal cookies, afternoon popcorn, complimentary use of high speed wireless internet, a DVD movie library, kayaks and bikes in the summer, and sleds and snowshoes in the winter.

Romance & relaxation are yours at the Blacksmith Inn On the Shore.

Rooms at the Inn

The shore side setting offers every guest room a water view, becoming more impressive as you move to higher floors.

The historic Zahn House

rooms have completely open views to the harbor with hammocks on third floor balconies.

Water views from Harbor House rooms peek through pine & birch trees, providing a secluded, woody feel with hammocks on every balcony.
